

PLEASANT VIEW PROCLAIMER

LIVING FOR CHRIST

Many of you are familiar with this old child's prayer:

"Lord, I lay me down to sleep. I pray the Lord my soul to keep. If I die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take."

Most people want to die in their sleep. And they want their soul to spend eternity in heaven. But let's take the focus away from the dying, and focus on the living. Let's not ask, "Are you ready to die in the Lord?" Let's ask, "Are you ready to live for the Lord?" You are more likely to live tomorrow than die tomorrow. So, when you wake up tomorrow, how will you live for Christ?

Will you be a "living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God" (Rom. 12:1).

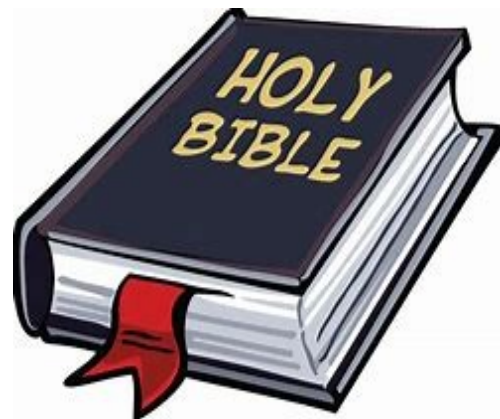

Will you extend the hand of Christ to those in need (James 2:14-17)?

Will you pray in order to relieve your anxiety (Phil. 4:6)?

Will you resist the devil (James 4:7; I Peter 5:9)?

Will you assemble with Christians so that your faith may be encouraged (Eph. 4:29)?

Will you confess Christ so that He will confess your name (Matt. 10:32-33)?

FAITH HEALING

This is an excerpt from an article written by Steve Higginbotham in 2003:

“This past weekend, Richard Roberts, son of Oral Roberts, was scheduled to hold a healing session for more than 2000 followers at the Elmer S. McVety Centre in Toronto, Canada. However, the event was cancelled at the last minute. Do you know why? Due to the World Health Organization issuing a travel advisory for Toronto because of the number of SARS cases reported there, the Roberts organization cancelled the event for fear of exposure to the SARS virus! Can you believe that?”

It is shame that these so-called “faith healers” are still in business. Have you ever seen one raise the dead, cure near-sightedness, or send a single person home from the hospital? The only people who are ever “healed” are the ones who are healthy enough to attend one of the healer’s services.

THOSE WHO WILL SERVE (October 27, 2019)

Reject these charlatans at every opportunity.
