Context and What We Missed in Chapter 6:

- 1 Samuel 4:1-11; 5:1-12 – The ark of the LORD is captured by the Philistines.
- 1 Samuel 6:1-7:2 – The ark is returned and is at Kiriath-jearim in the house of Abinadab for 20 years.
- 2 Samuel 6:1-4 – David prepares to bring the ark to Jerusalem from Baale-judah (Kiriath-jearim).
- 2 Samuel 6:5-8 – Uzzah dies after touching the ark at the threshing floor of Nacon (Perez-uzzah).
- 2 Samuel 6:9-11 – David is afraid and leaves the ark in the house of Obed-edom for three months.
- 2 Samuel 6:12-15 – David brings the ark to Jerusalem. The ark was welcomed into Jerusalem by David offering sacrifices and dancing while wearing a linen ephod.
- 2 Samuel 6:17-23 – Michal confronts David for “uncovering himself”.

A _____ of David (1-3; 1 Chronicles 17:1-2) - The ark of the covenant is in Jerusalem residing in a tent (2 Samuel 6:16-19) while David resides in a magnificent palace made of cedar (2 Samuel 5:11-12). David considers this inequity and desires to build God a house. David must believe this is an appropriate action to take to honor his God. However, just feeling like something is good does not mean it is God’s will! God will later acknowledge that it was good for David to have this desire in his heart (1 Kings 8:18), but God had different plans for David. This marks the first mention of Nathan the prophet, and even he advises that David should proceed before consulting the will of God.

God’s A _____ for David (4-17) - God refuses David’s offer...

> The P _____ in the Refusal (4; 1 Chronicles 17:3) - “That same night...” God spoke to Nathan concerning the offer from David.

> The P _____ in the Refusal (1 Chronicles 17:4) - God instructs Nathan to tell David “It is not you who will build me a house to dwell in...”

> The P _____ in the Refusal (5-7; 1 Chronicles 17:5-6)

- The Lord has not dwelt in a house since bringing Israel out of Egypt (6; 1 Chron 17:5)
- The Lord has lived in a tent during all the time since Egypt (6; 1 Chron 17:5)
- The Lord never asked any of His judges to build Him a house of cedar (7; 1 Chron 17:6)

> The P _____ in the Refusal (11-17; 1 Chronicles 17:10-15) - Instead of David building God a house, God declares that He instead “will make you a house...” This house will be built by an offspring of David who will come after his death. God promises that He “will establish the throne of his kingdom forever”. Many have attributed this promise as pointing to Solomon, however the ultimate fulfillment is realized in Jesus Christ (Hebrews 1:5). The promise that David’s throne would be established forever becomes one of the most pervasive in scripture (see Psalms 89:3-4; Isaiah 9:6-7; 11:1-10; Jeremiah 23:5-6; Luke 1:26-33; Matthew 1:1).

With this promise, God has further revealed His plan for saving mankind from their sins. The first glimpse into his plan comes while Adam and Eve are still in the garden, when he tells the serpent “He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel” (Genesis 3:15). This one who shall crush the head of the serpent is later revealed to be a descendant of Abraham through whom “all the families of the earth shall be blessed” (Genesis 12:3). Now God is revealing that this descendant of Abraham will be from the line of David, and the throne of His spiritual kingdom will be established forever. The writers of the New Testament clearly saw Jesus as the fulfillment of this prophecy (Luke 1:26-33; Matthew 1:1; Hebrews 1:5). In Jesus, the throne of David “shall be established forever”.
