Time for a Review: Since we have a break today in our Memorize John sermon series, this might be a good time to review the images we have looked at so far. Have you memorized the pictures? Can you use them to remember the accounts they represent in each of the first eight chapters? Can you remember the events and conversations that surround these accounts? I encourage each of you to spend some time this week in review of John Chapters 1 to 8 to help in locking in these incredible chapters and their record of the activities of our Lord Jesus Christ!
